G. Processing Time

1. 10 - 30 working days.
2. Only forms with complete information and with the supporting documents will be processed.
3. If MII requests further information, you have two (2) weeks to respond. If you do not respond within that time, MII will consider that you are no longer interested in applying for exemption and terminate the process.

Note :

In connection with your application to The Malaysian Insurance Institute for exemption, please note that reference checks and requests for verifications regarding your qualification and education may be made.

Verification issued by the awarding body will include your full legal name at the time of study, the level of qualification undertaken, the full course title, the mode of attendance (i.e. full time or part time), the start date, and award date and classification achieved (if applicable). If you were permanently withdrawn from your studies, this will also be shown in the final document.

Please note that references and verifications may take up to 30 working days to be completed from the submission of correct details.

In addition, when applying for exemption, you are giving consent to the awarding body/university/institution to release the above education and qualification details to The Malaysian Insurance Institute. You are also deemed to have consented that MII use, store, disclose and process your personal data for the purpose mentioned above and agree to comply with and be subject to the jurisdiction of all rules and regulations of MII concerning the exemption application.

H. Review of Exemption Application and Decisions	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Examination Committee will examine the documents submitted to assess your prior learning and to compare it to the examination or subject you are applying for. 2. After the Committee completes the review, they will make one of the following three possible decisions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) Grant your request: This means that the Committee has accepted your application and recognises your prior learning. b) Deny your request: This means that the Committee has decided not to recognise your prior learning for this course. You will have to fulfil the usual study requirements of the programme. c) Further assessment required: This means the Committee was unable to make a decision. This can happen when details in the application need further clarification. It means that the Committee wants extra information before they decide.
I. When Exemptions are NOT granted	MII does not grant exemptions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Based on professional / work experience. 2. If your non-MII examination or qualification does NOT match the learning outcomes of the current MII examination that you are applying for exemption from. 3. If the assessment method of your non-MII examination or qualification is NOT of a similar standard and scope to the MII examination unit. 4. If a student has previously sat and failed the subject in the MII or CII examination, even if the student have subsequently gained a qualification which would otherwise be regarded as equivalent. 5. If you have applied based on a partially completed qualification, even if you have passed a subject which would be regarded as equivalent.

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. For qualifications not gained by examination. 7. For qualifications obtained more than 10 years ago at the date of application.
J. Operating Rules	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. You may be granted exemption from PCEIA and / or CEILLI on the basis of professional and academic qualifications which, in the opinion of the Examination Committee, are of equivalent standard and scope. 2. Exemption awarded will be based upon the scope and standard of information submitted with the application. 3. You must submit all the required documents with your application within the deadline specified for processing. If additional information is required, you must submit it within the deadline. Otherwise, you will have to submit a new application. 4. MII policy is to award exemption for subjects that are within the MII qualification framework at the time of application. 5. If misleading information or fraudulent documents are submitted, MII will withdraw the exemption. In this case, MII will take disciplinary action against the applicant concerned. 6. MII will not award exemptions based on exemptions awarded by other organizations. MII will, however, review the potential based on original qualification. 7. You must obtain a pass in the subject you are applying for exemption from. 8. You are not allowed to apply for exemption more than once using the same qualification.

K. Changes to MII Qualification Framework	1. The MII framework is evolving in response to the regulatory environment, changes in education regulation standards and customer need. As a consequence, exemption awards and accreditation criteria do change. The exemption awarded will be subject to changes to the MII education and qualification framework.
L. Data Protection Act 2010	In compliance with the Personal Data Protection Act 2010, please note that your personal data is used, stored, disclosed and processed by MII solely for the purpose of processing your exemption and/or in connection to other MII products or services. Your personal information may also be disclosed or transferred to relevant third party i.e. to industry-related associations, industry-related companies, government agencies and any of their respective agents. Any enquiries or complaints regarding your personal information may be sent to MII via post, or email (customercare@mii.org.my).

Qualifications Eligible for PCEIA & CEILLI Exemption

IMPORTANT:

MII reserves the right to not award exemptions based on insufficient information or unfulfilled requirements.

Please note that you must have completed your academic qualification, for example university degree, within the last 10 years. (E.g. For exemption application 2020, only qualifications obtained after 2010 will be considered.)

We do not encourage applicants without insurance/financial planning or insurance/financial planning related qualifications to apply for exemption as applicants may not meet the exemption eligibility criteria. Please note these are only guides and not definitive listings.

It is not possible to provide a complete list of the qualifications for which exemptions have been agreed. The list below gives an indication of the type and level of qualification which can attain dispensations. For confirmation of your exemption status, you should complete the exemption application form and pay the appropriate fees upon confirmation.
