You are advised to read the current Malaysian Insurance Institute Diploma and Associateship Examinations Handbook carefully before completing this form. INCORRECT entries or incomplete forms will be rejected.

Candidates should satisfy themselves that they are not entering for subjects which are scheduled for examination in the same session. The timetable cannot be altered to avoid clashes.

If MII is unable to provide you a place in the centre of your first choice, every effort will be made to try and place you in the centre of your second choice. However MII reserves the right to place you in any other centre.
