These inspiring young leaders are making great strides in their field and are leading the way in bringing positive change to their organization, industry and society at large. The three finalists will be proceeding to the next stage which is the final selection interview that will be held in Nay Pyi Taw, Myanmar.

We are encouraged by the overwhelming response from the industry for YAMA 2019 as we received 31 nominations from 8 ASEAN countries which is an increase as compared to 26 nominations received in 2018. The quality of the submissions received is testament to the high calibre of young insurance leaders in the ASEAN region.

The ASEAN Insurance Training and Research Institute (AITRI) is the organiser of the YAMA 2019 which is recognized as the gold standard for identifying, encouraging and nurturing ASEAN's future leaders in insurance. The YAMA 2019 is a laudable initiative by the ASEAN Insurance Council to recognize young dynamic leaders from the ASEAN region who are accomplished in their role and have demonstrated dedication and commitment in contributing towards the growth and development of the insurance industry locally as well as across ASEAN.

We would like to thank all who participated in YAMA 2019 as well as our distinguished panel of judges who will have an unenviable task of selecting the YAMA 2019 winner from this impressive line-up of finalists. Congratulations to Mr. Kelvin Lim, Mr. Landung Eko Hardiono and Mr. Ong Shze Yong. We wish them the best for the next round.
